CEO'S MESSAGE

We are thrilled to present the First Arab's United cryptocurrency in the crypto world with the symbol of 5 stars in the sky. We have named it BAAMR, BAAMR COIN, the First GCC Crypto cash, which is intended for Arab youth with the approach of ensuring Arab solidarity and securing their future in the state of crypto as you might know that the idea of Arab solidarity isn't new to worldwide legislative issues and formative elements. This idea has been around for over a century. That is why we have taken the chance, joined the First Arab's Cryptocurrency in the crypto world, and taken it to a higher degree of success.

"The BAAMR COIN" is a web-based platform that supports and gathers all Arab youth regardless of what area of the planet they access from. And also, provide the cash reliability and assist them by tying down their direction to worldwide accomplishment through BAAMR COIN. The platform also tries to feature the abilities and skills of Arab youth at a worldwide level through invigorating their important speculation innovativeness Initiative objectives.

Maybe financial execution has forever been a measurement for progress. And that has so obviously appeared in the period of prosperity that the nation experienced in the course of recent many years, a boom, any semblance of which the world has seldom seen. Regarding homegrown capital business sectors, The BAAMR has been working together with the decentralized exchanges to define a technique and sketch out a guide for additional revamping of the world business sectors to the situation with cutting-edge markets. Today I am particularly glad to declare our first 99.9% Emirate group based cryptographic currency dispatching to the new, advanced world, which will change the perspective who don't accept of the crypto world; I am specially certain to see the boom and prosperity of our BAAMR COIN soon, a few years from now.

ABOUT BAAMR

The word BAAMR has been derived from five stars where each letter represents the first letter of the name of each star. The 5 stars are unique in their shape, and they keep on shining through the year were also in Arab traditions they used to roam seas by the guide of the stars where especially those 5 stars have a unique place for finding in which direction they are moving to.

The BAAMR project can be divided into two parts mainly: BAAMR blockchain and BAAMR NFT marketplace. We will not rely on a public blockchain; we will make our own blockchain which will be used privately and publicly to offer various services to private and governmental organizations.

The goal behind the BAAMR" Coin is that to build a digital currency that has a stabilized value no matter what the buyer's country is and the economic situation it is in. In simple words, it is a currency that is not threatened by the consequences of the economic drop.

OUR VISION

As you might know, cryptocurrencies are digital assets that utilize cryptography, an encryption procedure, for security. We are committed to essentially using First Arab United cryptocurrency to trade labor and products.

Purchasing services and products with First Arab United cryptocurrency happens on the web and doesn't need divulgence of characters. What they really offer is pseudonymity, which is a close cryptic state. We permit shoppers to shop without giving individual data to vendors.

All things considered, in the midst of rising worries of data scam and protection, First Arab United cryptocurrency can offer benefits to clients. The most significant advantage of digital currencies is that they don't include monetary institution go-betweens. For traders, the absence of a "mediator" brings down exchange costs. For purchasers, there's a huge risk if the monetary framework is hacked or, on the other hand, assuming the client doesn't confide in the conventional framework.

For good correspondence, assuming that a bank's data set were hacked or harmed, the bank would be totally dependent on its back-ups to reestablish any missing data. With digital currencies, regardless of whether a piece was compromised, the leftover parts would keep on having the option to affirm exchanges.

We are enthusiastic about making the Arab youth more aware of the benefits of using First Arab's United cryptocurrency and staying up-to-date with the modern world of digital assets.

Our Objectives

BAAMR is a shortcut name from five stars in the sky where each letter represents the first letter of the name of each star. The five stars are remarkable in their shape, and they continue to radiate during that time where; likewise, in Arab customs, they used to wander oceans by the aide of the stars, where particularly those five stars have an extraordinary spot for finding in which heading they are moving to.

BAAMR is a decentralized monetary installment network that modifies the conventional installment stack on the blockchain. It uses a bin of fiat- fixed stablecoin, algorithmically balanced out by its hold cash BAAMR, to work with programmable installments and open monetary improvement.

The objective

"BAAMR" crypto coin is to fabricate advanced money that has balanced-out esteem regardless of the purchaser's country's financial circumstance, so in simple words, it is cash that isn't compromised the outcomes of the monetary drop. framework behind the

About Platform

BAAMR Blockchain Network : As we have started a major blockchain, crypto, and NFT project, the underlying technology must be robust and safe. First of all, we are going to build our own blockchain to set a strong technological foundation for this project. We are not going to rely on a public blockchain.

Having our own blockchain would be a great strength for BAAMR Coin because we are not going to be dependent on another blockchain. However, our blockchain will still be interoperable so that our blockchain can interact with other blockchains.

BAAMR Coin's blockchain will be used privately and publicly for a variety of purposes. We will extend our advanced system to private, governmental, and non-governmental organizations working in the health, training, and education domains.

Our blockchain will be used to offer services to healthcare and educational institutions. BAAMR

MARKETING

We have plans to use effective promotion techniques to spread the word about this project. There are many options, and we will start with:

Content Marketing

We intend to have content marketing at the core of our marketing campaigns. Therefore, we'll have a team of content writers to write various SEO-optimized articles, press releases, and other relevant content for our project website and our partner websites.

Social Media Marketing

Social media has become one of the most important channels for marketers. Our social media marketing technique is to increase brand recognition as a cryptocurrency supported by real business. We will use link-building techniques to share our stories, development progress, and news updates on other blockchain projects to cross-market our cryptocurrency. Some of the platforms we target are Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Telegram, and YouTube, and TikTok.
